

I am a happy person in neutral.
I'm looking for a tall vegan girl.
I've grown older and older just to learn most cops are still assholes.

Reading books from Oprah
Mother why do you have to show me the good in what I hate?
Learning more and more to love, my confidence is dwindling in my individual being.
A life of surrender sure sells a lot of copies and if I'm one can I still dress sloppy?
Uniform and combat clean just don't send me to war, I don't believe in anything.
Sure there's god supposedly one,
all in all, through and through,
when outside is, sometimes clue, dogma and red tape.
Government or entertainment seems to be resources for us who deny.
Do they get a new frontier, a voice and choice where beauty belongs?

I'm gonna tell you a story you've never heard,
one of a man who received a cure together,
I used to stare into digital vaginas,
then I found hope written in the Bible,
I'd like to stay on the straight edge,
all my drinking was to look cool,
Maybe I can't remember how it felt,
it could be bad,
just like this song into a fad.

Those were the days when I drop kicked my friend in the face, drunken rampage – I coerced the streets we're together in a chemical bond,
and never, you can't deny drugs helped you stay together,
I refute that they drove me and us apart.
Food was my savior and the spirits inside a new hope,
I was scared to hide.

Now it's yoga beside inheritance and love.

Your tattoos look like you were cut open and filled with beauty inside.

It was always a main goal to show you hell,
I figured if a good friend can show that clear enough,
he can show you the way out.

Put <3 in your life
Your only as strong as her weakness.

Oh how I love to take a shower,
let it all out in a cleansing rain above,
just as I like to dive on in rivers up north,
droplets of relief,
Helps me to sing!

I don't want a slow death,
Suffocation release me.

Stepping in the viewpoint,
Atomic bombs are not fit for my night,
took myself out the war,
now it's all psychology just like it was before,
causal manifest, superior will, subtle compassion, exercise the thrill.

I'm alive! Finally after years I can see and breathe what is meant for me!

Take your cigarettes and I'll keep my hairy nuts, pass on by or I'll steep my leave.

When I did it (those tricks) I felt I'd never have a chance again.

A game where you fight a monster that sheds sanity,
you shine light and clarity comes off in jars,
a blue antidote.

In a night full of stars we flew straight into our lovers arms.

I wanna go have a picnic with you,
don't know how to explain it,
I'm a fool,
what do we need?
Basket and Blanket,
Food and drink,
Make it fast I don't need to think,
Emotion and feelings, yeah...

I'm in a state of digestion,
people are talking outside the room,
while a man sleeps that's been his way.

Another venture here and I'll be the one,
I can be happy and I can be sad,
I listen as I tell the voices of my song,
I tried to be good, I tried to be wrong,
these highs and lows go further than calm.
